

Speech Competition under the Sewa Sankalp Abhiyan for Category II

Date: 24th September, 2026

Venue: Digital Seminar Hall

A Speech Competition was organised under the Sewa Sankalp Abhiyan by B.H.B College, Sarupeta, on 24th September, 2026, for the students of XI and XII standards. The program was hosted by Mr Biswajit Deka and was attended by a large gathering of students and faculty members. As a part of the competition, the participants were required to present an impromptu speech on "Floods and Riverbank Erosion in Assam: Challenges, Adaptation and the Way Forward". Each participant was given four minutes to present their views. The competition was judged by Mr. Nabamani Saikia, Dr. Preeti Rekha Dutta and Mr. Rupa Basumatary, who scored the participants based on their introductory remarks, analysis of the topic and the manner of conclusion. Nikash Deka, Jiyamani Daimari and Priyanka Pathak bagged the first, second and third prizes respectively. The event was organised in order to identify the students who can represent the college at the district level and promote reflective thinking and competitive spirit among them.
