Editor's Column...

Welcome to the issue no. 17 of the college newsletter. This issue is published by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell of B.H.B. College, Sarupeta as an attempt to assess the various reports and acknowledge the achievements of the members of the college.

The major driving force for this issue is the need to provide a unique forum to promote the idea of progress through shared interests.

The current issue of the "College News" gives a pictorial depiction of the plans and programmes undertaken by the departments and individuals. Apart from the Institutional report, it slates the glorious individual achievements of teachers and students.

We extend our gratitude to the Departments and the Cells for furnishing the required data and for supporting the vision of the bulletin.

We are indebted to the Principal, Co-ordinator of I.Q.A.C., Convenor of the Steering Committee, NAAC, Head of the Departments and the Convenor of different Cells and Committees.

The reader's will encounter different underlying facets and ideas that shape, build and constitute the ideals of B.H.B. College.

We hope this issue breathes an air of pride and joy to all readers.
